

Here is a website list for some helpful areas for training, education and benefits. Please pass them around to your troops.

> <http://www.voled.doded.mil/> Degrees via Distance Learning Tuition assistance Approved course work - Make sure you talk to the education department before you enroll

<http://www.anthrax.osd.mil/> Anthrax vaccination information

<http://www.free-training.com/> Free safety training computer-based

<http://www.mci.usmc.mil/> Free correspondence courses some worth college credits. all you have to do is call to enroll

<http://www.acenet.edu/> If you want to know if that Military Course you took could be worth college credit or not you can check out this website.

<http://www.amunet.edu/utuition.asp> Distance Learning Through the American University. This is a good program. Can be free depending on your military status

<http://www.grad.usda.gov/> Gov. correspondence, onsite and offsite training courses. Great source for Gov. training requirements

<http://www.fedamerica.com/> Free federal publications to download concerning benefits for both active and technicians

www.arngmuseum.com The Arkansas National Guard Museum Inc.

http://www.flinthills.com/~post17/p17_mnfo.htm links to all services, VA , Desert Storm and other helpful sites for veterans

Safety information

<http://www.navysafetycenter.navy.mil/>

<http://www.usc.state.ut.us/home/fire>

Gerald L. Robinson, 2d Lt. AR ANG
Arkansas Human Resources Office
(501) 212-4206 DSN 962-4206
Gerald.Robinson@ar.ngb.army.mil